

The artwork is a complex collage. A black dog is the central figure, positioned on a large, textured red shape that resembles a piece of fabric or a rug. To the right of the dog is a blue, irregular shape. Above the dog and blue shape is a white, textured shape that looks like a dog's head or a piece of fur. The entire scene is framed by a white wireframe structure, possibly representing a cage or a display case. The background is dark and textured, with some green and yellow tones. The overall style is expressive and layered.
